Voter Registration TIPS

- 1. Be assertive and friendly. Smile.
- 2. Bring a friend. While you're registering, your friend can keep an eye out for what's going on around you. "Read the room!"
- 3. Find a strategic time and location to approach people:
 - a. Before an event officially begins
 - b. People at the edge of a crowd
 - c. Small groups if you can get 1, you can usually get more. Peer pressure from friends also helps.
- 4. Avoid making assumptions about people. Ask everyone. We all have a tendency to approach people like us. Expect rejection. It's part of the process. Don't take it personally.
- 5. The approach: Greeting; then "Can I get you registered to vote?"
 - a. If already registered, then "... at your current address?" Younger people move frequently. Voters must re-register every time they move.
 - b. If not registered or equivocal, give one non-partisan reason to register:
 - i. Stress how quick and easy registration is: "It just takes a couple of minutes."
 - ii. Protests followed by voting can make real change. "The elected Minneapolis City Council just voted with a veto-proof majority to dismantle the police department."
 - iii. It's easy to vote: "You can vote right from home in your pjs."
 - iv. Registration gives you the choice to vote.
 - v. For younger people: "Old people vote way more than young people. We need our votes to make change."
 - c. If they're not interested at all, politely move on.
- 6. Completing the VR Form
 - a. *The fastest route to a completed form is for you to do the writing yourself. Just ask them the questions. Also, this ensures that all required sections are completed.
 - b. Only complete highlighted parts of the form.
 - c. ALWAYS get phone # or email
 - If the person objects be these items are "optional," explain:
 - 1. 1/5 vote without follow-up; 4/5 with follow-up

- 2. Explain the reason we ask is to tell them important info like deadlines for getting your ballot mailed, where to vote in person, etc.
- e. If someone says they "think" they are registered but not sure, reregister them. That way, we get contact info for GOTV

Check to make sure all highlighted sections are complete before the person leaves.

7. Teenagers

- a. Anyone over 16 can pre-register.
- b. First question: Do you have a drivers license or Learners Permit with you? If not, Do you know the last 4 digits of your SSN?
- c. If no, give kid a texting card.
- d. Anyone born before Nov. 3, 2002 will be old enough to vote!
- e. For kids under 16, educate them by saying: "You can register to vote when you apply for your driver's license. All you have to do is check a box on the form."

8. Convicted Felons can vote

- a. Utah is one of only 14 states where any convicted felon who is not incarcerated can vote.
- b. Some folks don't believe this is the law. Here's the rationale. Utah believes that once you've done your time, you should be a full member of society. Everyone makes mistakes and felons have already paid for theirs.
- 9. "Can I just take a form & fill it out later?"
 - a. Do NOT give potential registrants the form to take home!
 - b. They likely won't complete it & turn it in
